

Clinical and Healthcare Staffing

Finding the right people couldn't be more important for the health service. That's why our motivation is always to find the very best solutions for all NHS organisations, because when we get it right for you, it benefits the NHS as a whole.

The NHS Workforce Alliance's Clinical and Healthcare Staffing framework enables trusts to meet their staffing challenges, with unmatched category expertise and advice from our specialist staff.

What is included in the agreement?

Free to access by all NHS organisations and public sector bodies in the UK, this framework enables organisations to procure medical and healthcare staff from one place, limiting confusion in the market and creating a streamlined process. This framework can support recruitment in: nursing and midwifery, medical and dentistry, allied health professionals and health science services, emergency services and social care staffing.

Whether you're looking for help with your workforce strategy or a specific procurement solution, we'll give you open and honest advice, with expert support and guidance every step of the way.

How can the agreement help me?

- This framework has been approved by NHS England and NHS Improvement (NHSEI), upholding the Government's standards in ethical recruitment, codes of practice and regulations
- The specification offers flexibility to incorporate service elements that meet your individual local and regional requirements
- Customers have the option to either direct award or conduct a further competition
- Suppliers are actively managed and audited on a regular basis to ensure full compliance with NHS Employment Check Standards. Ad-hoc audits can also be requested should supplier processes raise concerns
- Our team of trusted advisors offer market intelligence on what was happening across the NHS, as well as make operational changes in order to support these challenges
- Support and updates regarding regulatory changes and policy delivery
